Take what you have gained here at Colorado College, and by pursuing your passion, make a difference in the world! We love you.

Chip Bagnall

Dear Chip,

I have walsy been proud of you and as you end this part of your life and enter a new, know that we are always here and will do anything to support you. You are smart, handsome, athletic, and humorous, but your most hidden attribute is your sensitivity. As a small child, you always exhibited an ability to be in tune with people and your surroundings. I think the world pushes that trait too deep inside our soul. You truly have that gift and I would encourage you to revel that and show the world and all those around you, the beautiful person you truly are.

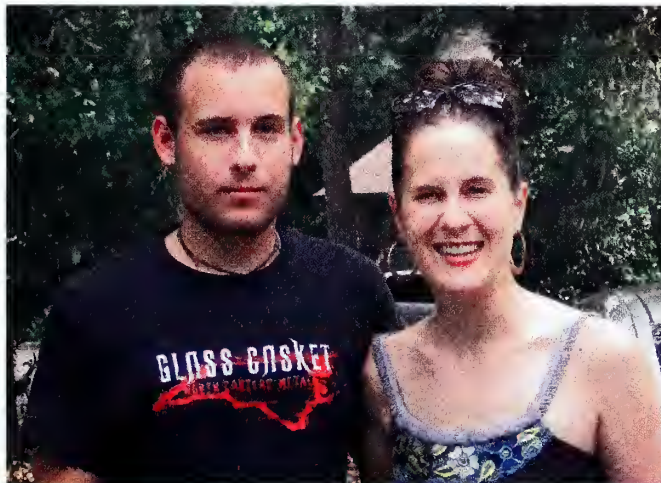

I love you and wish you only happiness in your life

Dad

Chip~ You are So a part of me. I take such pride in witnessing the evolvment of the incredible person that I see as my 'son'. I could NOT have asked for more. Don't be afraid ~ ask that questions ~ and live you life.

Carpe Diem,
Mom

Dear chip,
Please remember the following:
-you are important and amazing.
-everyone else is bizarre and you are the only normal one.
-it's comforting to have a chinese food place know who you are.
Keep this in mind as you go off into the world to make awesome.
And I have no doubt that you will make a lot of awesome.
I love you and will always be here for you.

One arrives
Beautiful, defiant, miraculous
No words

Green

Green in your beauty, you extend tendril by tendril, each bearing the rosiness of one simplistic bud.

Your scent perfumes the air as it rolls and is carried in and out of passing breezes.

I lay on my back, cushioned by green, gazing upward.

Your body, a network of life, begins at a gnarly trunk by my head and somehow, by the miracle of nature, ends with the tender green of blossoms and delicate webbed leaves.

A breeze passes, playfully brushing your limbs and taking with it a tornadoed bouquet of fallen petals.

They fall in muted silence, only to rest on the quilted blanket beside me.

Dear Jon,

Jon Rotzien

We are delighted that you sometimes escaped the studious atmosphere of your dorm room...

...to dress and behave appropriately for social occasions...

...and jump for joy off the coast of New Zealand!

I am Jon Rotzien '07 and I approve this message.

...to explore the American Southwest with your scientific instruments...

...to represent Colorado College by stroke,
bike and foot...

Jon, we are both impressed and proud that you represented your school, your organizations and your family during the last four years with such excellence and enthusiasm. Congratulations on quite a finish!
